

ASSEMBLIES

Regular assemblies are held in the auditorium on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays of each week.

A great variety of programs are presented at these assemblies throughout the year. Prominent speakers in different fields often give addresses. Members of the Freshman and Junior classes present interesting programs and occasional plays on Thursdays. Educational movies are also shown at various times during the year.

Students gather at assembly.

Superintendent McCall makes announcements.

"Professor Quiz," (A. M. Foker), presides. Byron Hess is "shaky" as Florence Altepeter watches.

Cross section of student body in the opening hymn.

Students witness animal show presented by Billy Fee.

Millie draws a question. "Professor Quiz" lends an encouraging hand.

Man and Monkey entertain audience.

Victor has his turn and the crowd roars as "Professor Quiz" reprovos our editor.

Underclassmen present play,

"A CHRISTMAS CAROL"

By - - - - Charles Dickens

