

Highlights of Red River Valley Winter Shows

How the National Livestock and Meat Board is "Serving the Meat Industry"—D. H. Lavoie; Director of Public Relations, National Livestock and Meat Board, Chicago, Illinois.

"Art of Living Seriously"—W. C. Coffey, Dean of the Department of Agriculture, University of Minnesota.

"Play Readings"—Miss Anne Simley, Department of Speech, Hamline University, St. Paul, Minnesota.

"Interesting Observations of the Scandinavian Countries"—Mrs. Katherine Jensen Metzinger, Fargo, North Dakota.

"The Challenge of Scandinavian Economics and Social Cooperatives"—Dr. John Bekker, State Teachers' College, Moorhead, Minnesota.

"Indian Pottery" and "Romance of Chinaware"—Miss Margaret Cable, Department of Ceramics, University of North Dakota.

"The Parade of Empires"—Upton Close, New York.

"Propaganda in the News"—Clarence W. Sorenson, Chicago. Managing Editor "Globe" Magazine and Associate Editor "Readers' Digest."

"The Trend in Sale Prices of Farm Real Estate in Minnesota"—Dr. A. A. Dowell, University Farm, St. Paul.

"The Repairing of Human Wreckage"—Rodney H. Brandon, Batavia, Illinois.

Members of various musical organizations from the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston, and neighboring towns participated in different programs throughout the Winter Shows Week.

