

CALENDAR

OCT. 3—Freshmen and Junior Registration. A lot of wheres, whys and whens are asked by the Freshmen.

OCT. 4—Seniors and Advanced register. Classes begin at 1:15. We are told what to do at the first assembly.

OCT. 5—Pow-wow and Frolic. Freshies get spanked and how the upper classmen enjoy doing it.

OCT. 6—Class Meetings. Mr. Foker gives the annual Safety talk in assembly.

OCT. 8—Football game with Central High School—score is 0-0. YM and YWCA reception. Everyone's feet are tired from standing in line so long.

OCT. 9—Sacred Concert by the Music and English Departments.

OCT. 10—Band organized. We all start blowing. A few new students join the band.

OCT. 11—Elliot James gives Lyceum number on liquid air. Br-r-r—it must be cold!

OCT. 15—Rain can't dampen our school spirit, but it can wash away the score. Bemidji 26, Aggies 7.

OCT. 18—First Social hour. Julian Erlandson shows off his new step. First Aggie Board Meeting.

OCT. 19—After much arguing and sales talk, the Seniors decide on their class rings.

OCT. 20—Girls' and boys' Physical examinations. Say "ah". Kay Molacek finds she has gained five pounds during the summer.

OCT. 21—Fraulein Anne Rutz gives a Lyceum number on the "Passion Play." The Choir is organized.

OCT. 22—Grand Rapids' Football team shine up their head-gear to compete with Crookston stars. We out-shine them 38-7.

OCT. 23—Speech choir makes first appearance at YM and YWCA.

OCT. 24—Aggie Board is really getting interesting. We select our theme and make plans for our book.

OCT. 25—Boys choose to see "Batter Up" instead of Social hour. The girls aren't fussy. Their shoes don't look so "battered up" after a movie.

OCT. 26—Mr. Mlinar discusses tardiness at School Problems.

