

CALENDAR

NOV. 1—Classes decide where, when, and how they are going to have their parties.

NOV. 2—Was Jessie Rae Taylor fooling us or did she really snap into another costume behind the scenes?

NOV. 4—Whoopie! Classes are dismissed for the afternoon. We show our school spirit by keeping an even score with Mahnomen, 7-7.

NOV. 5—Parents' Day—the day we entertain parents and show off our hard work of the summer months.

NOV. 7—Mr. Wegener returns with a new wife. The Seniors charivari them in Senior Hall.

NOV. 8—Julian comes late to Aggie Board. He says he's been to the dorm; which dorm????

NOV. 11—Evelyn Brandt places wreath on the monument as a tribute to the N. W. S. A. students who lost their lives in the war.

NOV. 12—Classes have parties. Senior boys learn how to truck. Freshmen and Juniors play games. Advanced go to a show and skate.

NOV. 13—The Freshmen and Juniors present the Parents' Day play, "The Tea pot on the Rocks," for the students.

NOV. 14—Band has its first rehearsal of the term. Sweet music.

NOV. 15—The student body gets a good hour's sleep during the movie in assembly.

NOV. 16—If the below grade list doesn't get too large we have a good chance for a swell Basketball team this year.

NOV. 17—Six Senior girls have a party after Miss Bede checks rooms. You know what that means.

NOV. 18—Robert Nelson directs band at rehearsal. Where is Mr. Bakkegaard?

NOV. 19—The Concordia College players present "The Good Hope." Drama class serves lunch.

NOV. 21—Girls attend Social Hour. What's the matter boys? You aren't below grade are you?

NOV. 22—Everyone is starving themselves for the big Thanksgiving dinner. No wonder the Basketball score was 17-18 in favor of Grand Forks!

