

CALENDAR

DEC. 3—Berquist gives up his chair to Miss Chappuis in Algebra Class. Why give it to her first, Bud? Three were standing.

DEC. 4—Modern Drama Class presents one act plays. Kermit declares his stand—Cora vs. Chow-Chow!

DEC. 5—Up to date there are 30 girls campused in Robertson Hall. It looks like they are doing all right.

DEC. 6—It's Tuesday and once again those familiar tan envelopes are out. You didn't get one did you, Harvey Diamond?

DEC. 7—Juniors show no ignorance, they're the tops when it comes to winning volley ball over the Frosh. The score 36-16.

DEC. 8—Fat gets a campus along with the other boys in Senior Hall.

DEC. 10—Talent, talent, and more talent. We find we have three old maids among us too—after seeing Variety Night Program.

DEC. 11—Have you seen all the new romances that are popping up around here? Yes, I mean you, and you, and you.

DEC. 12—Wilbur has started work again. We hear Leona is starting too.

DEC. 13—Large number of boys try out for hockey. Outlook is promising.

DEC. 16—The yen for doughnuts and hot chocolate was the cause for the do-re-mi that you heard this morning. The Advanced had song practice.

DEC. 17—Awards Assembly. Myrtle Hanson wins the silver trophy for the second time. Congratulations, "Myrt."

DEC. 18—Girls exhibit their angelic traits by acting as Angels in the Christmas Pageant.

DEC. 19—Song Contest. Advanced win first, and the Seniors second. The Juniors and Frosh tie for third place.

DEC. 20—Christmas banquet in the dining hall. Santa presents gifts. Hi, Ho, Silver! Where was Ike?

DEC. 21—Classes are over. We're sorry to leave you, books, but it must be done. Hi, Mom and Dad! Am I glad you're here!

