

CALENDAR

JAN. 9—Registration day. Everyone seems to have had a good time during vacation.

JAN. 10—Operetta rehearsals in full swing. Auditorium echoes with song.

JAN. 12—All the girls in Row two in Algebra get C. Maybe Bette and Esther can explain that.

JAN. 13—"Maggy" has a cold. You shouldn't do so much night walking, Vernon. Maybe the air isn't good for you.

JAN. 14—The Crookston Pirates make us blush with a score of 12 to 21 in their favor.

JAN. 16—Senior girls see Flour Mill. They try to make a hit with the bread maker. What has he got that so many others have not—(dough) or something?

JAN. 18—Ritz Trumpeteers give us a bit of rhythm on their bazooka, cornet, piano, saxophone and trombone.

JAN. 20—Things look good for the conference championship. Our team came out with a score of 33 to 28 vs. Saint Paul.

JAN. 21—Worst storm of the winter. The hockey team wins the first game of the season with Grand Forks. Operetta a grand success.

JAN. 22—The chill after the storm takes the joy out of life, still there is a lot of ruddy skin around the campus. It is sunburn or grease paint?

JAN. 24—A forty mile trip did our boys some good. They come home with a score of 32 to 24 over Fosston.

JAN. 26—Dorothy Hanson returns from the Health Service after ten days of red spots. (Measles to you.)

JAN. 28—The President's Birthday Ball was celebrated with a dance in the gym and a party in the cafeteria.

JAN. 29—Bud Berquist and Henry Paulson do a bit of figure skating at the Arena up town. Happy landing, boys!
