

CALENDAR

- FEB. 3—Basketball boys go to Morris. Score—33-45 in favor of us.
- FEB. 4—Basketball boys go to St. Paul. Movie, "Bringing up Baby." We roll in the aisles.
- FEB. 6—Winter Shows begin. What a hectic week ahead!
- FEB. 7—Classes all morning. What a rush and mixup! Everyone pushes and shoves to get into the bus. Matt Jensen sits on his imagination.
- FEB. 8—Girls give style show at Winter Shows under the direction of Miss Kingston. Everyone goes up town to hear Mr. Brandon speak in the evening. Faith has that happy look again. John is here.
- FEB. 9—Propaganda in the News by Sorenson. Does it give you any ideas, Jack and Ike?
- FEB. 10—Many of the students go down town to hear Upton Close speak.
- FEB. 11—Everyone sleepy after one week of hard work. Show "Man of Affairs" in the evening. Fern advertises lessons on falling down stairs.
- Feb. 12—Fern's eye is black.
- FEB. 13—Gatheridge takes a picture of all girls on Aggie Board. Talbert just missed being on it. Miss Bede and Kingston turn snow shovelers.
- FEB. 14—Teachers give out many valentines enclosed in those familiar tan envelopes. We're glad they remembered us anyway.
- FEB. 16—Freshmen and Juniors give book report court in assembly. College aptitude tests given.
- FEB. 17—First February thaw. Miss Kingston is threatened with a campus for going without a cap.
- FEB. 18—Junior girls win over Senior girls 13 to 10. Aggies beat Mentor 43 to 23. All school party. "Whatta hop!"
- FEB. 19—Wanted—two people to shovel snow after terrific storm. Call 182-W, Miss Bede and Kingston on hand and ready to go.
- FEB. 20—Chewing caramels and writing for the annual uses up all our energy and we retire after a hard days work.
- FEB. 21—Fern and Lucille take front row seats at lyceum number to learn a new art. Mr. Wegener sleeps through 2:05 English class.
- FEB. 23—It's a shame the way we rush Cliff Manning. The poor guy didn't get a chance to read his 13 page letter till after Aggie Board.
- FEB. 24—Cliff may have it over on Vic on the number of pages in his letter, but it's what's in the letter that counts. Vic gets that in only six.
- FEB. 25—Even if we did lose the game with Thief River, we gave a state championship team a royal battle. The score—19-20.
- FEB. 26—Dorothy Larson has company again. Who was it, Dorothy?
- FEB. 27—Aggie Board and more Aggie Board. Morning, night, and noon. But the Aggie must go to press. Junior-Senior Prom postponed. Football goys get "A" sweaters.
- MAR. 2—Hamline Choir performs. We hear the best musical program of the year.
- MAR. 3—We meet our rivals at Central. Did we beat them? Yes. Score—33-19.
- MAR. 4—We hear about the "Far North" while our boys swim and wrestle in St. Paul.
- MAR. 6—Junior-Senior banquet and prom. They certainly did entertain us in grand style.
- MAR. 9—Whatta life! And to think that school can last only twenty days more.
- MAR. 10—Our Affirmative debaters meet the St. Paul Negatives. "Boy, what an argument!"
- MAR. 11—We meet the Morris basketball team here. What a scrap!
- MAR. 16—Two weeks until Baccalaureate. I just can't wait.
- MAR. 18—Declamatory Contest. Class competition runs high.
- MAR. 21—Advanced day. What an impressive program. Long live the King and Queen!
- MAR. 23—Our Aggie is out. Whoopee! We go into vaudeville. Lyceum—Dixie Melody Masters.
- MAR. 25—The Annual field meet. Our spring Awards Assembly. We see more "A" sweaters.
- MAR. 26—Baccalaureate Exercises. A solemn and impressive occasion.
- MAR. 28—Senior Reception. Our Superintendent entertains us royally.
- MAR. 29—Music Recital. The realization of a year's hard work. Now, I can sing.
- MAR. 30—Commencement Exercises—As we walk across the platform, we look back over three years of hard study. But, as we are handed our diplomas, we think, wasn't it worth it?
- May I at this time, express my sincere appreciation to Dorothy Larson, Bette Haug, and Talbert Koppang, who made this calendar possible.
