

HOMECOMING

"Our Alma Mater"

Homecoming festivities on the Northwest School campus were held on Saturday, October 21, 1939. Hundreds of alumni and former students were on hand to participate in the day's activities.

Festivities began on Friday evening with the traditional serenade of the Northwest School team and the visiting team following which came the parade around the campus leading to the scene of the Homecoming bonfire. Cheers, yells, pep talks, band music and lots of enthusiasm contributed to making the pep fest a colorful and gala affair.

Early Saturday morning alumni began to arrive on the campus for the annual Homecoming assembly. An imitation football game broadcast sponsored by the "Itsy-Bitsy-Burly-Bath Brush Co." was the highlight of the assembly program. Gridiron and locker room scenes were enacted on the stage.

By game time many hundreds of alumni were on hand to see the Northwest Aggies annihilate the Grand Rapids Aggies 43-0.

Traditional Homecoming banquet and Dance and Party climaxed the day's festivities.

Pictures: (top to bottom)

We have the ball on the 50 yard stripe.

The play gets going. Is it gain or no gain?

Oopsy-daisy... a Northwest Aggie almost gets kicked.

1938 Captain Harry Ward, former Coach O. C. Evans, 1939 basketball captain Jimmy Lenes and alum Ray Sorvig chat between halves.

Grads enjoy the proceedings: Ernest Malmkog, Harold Klemetson, Walter Stromstad.

The Strands, all grads and all football lettermen, watch brother, Captain Silas, scintillate in the game.