

CROPS JUDGING SQUAD

Standing (left to right): Mr. R. S. Dunham, W. Pastuck, M. Moe
Seated: A. Torkelson, W. Vasilakes, E. McMillan

Hail the champions of the 1941 Winter Shows! To the Northwest School Crops Judging squad, coached by Mr. R. S. Dunham, goes this honor.

In competition with crops judging teams from 6 other schools, the Northwest team finished in first place. Ed McMillan of the Northwest squad finished first among his teammates and second in the contest of twenty-one individuals. Marlowe Moe and Arnold Torkelson finished second and third respectively for the Aggies and fourth and sixth in the entire contest.

The contest required judging various samples of grain, weed seeds, weeds, and potatoes. Medals are awarded by the Northwest School to its representatives.

Much of the credit for the fine showing of the Northwest School team in the contest goes to Coach Dunham whose enthusiasm and knowledge of the subject stimulates squad members to greater achievement.

PERSONNEL: Edward McMillan, Marlowe Moe, William Vasilakes, Arnold Torkelson.
(medal) (medal) (medal)

"Mac" studies the weeds and "Bill" inspects the seeds

"Bill" judges potatoes while Marlowe looks over the grain