

JUNIOR SENIOR BANQUET

M
A
R
C
H

4,

1
9
4
0

PICTURES: (top left) The hosts, Miss Warne and Mr. Dunham; the guest, Miss Bierbauer. (top right) members of the Freshmen class act as waiters. (second row, left) A traffic jam with waiter Donald Duffy waiting the "go" signal. (second row, right) Emily Post says "keep elbows off table". (center) Principal faculty speaker, Miss Bede, and Senior class president and toastmaster, Alton Knutson; Katherine Brown; and—what goes on there? (bottom left) Junior class officers take lead in the Grand March; (bottom right) Swing it.

The gayest and most colorful social event of the school year is the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom held during March. The 1940 affair was the most elaborate in the history of the school. Following the banquet, which was held in the beautifully decorated Dining Hall, the partiers then proceeded to the Gymnasium which was completely transformed into a colorful ballroom. The spectacular Grand March, followed by dancing, completed the evening's program.