

1940 COMMENCEMENT DAY

PICTURES: (Top left) Donald LaPlante consents to a final picture on Commencement Day; (top center) Ready for the Senior Day exercises, LaVonne Swenson, Anne Sorenson, Opal Mykleby; (top right) Leyden Finney leaves Senior Hall for the last time—heading for the Auditorium and graduation; (bottom left) Harold Loyd congratulates Si Strand upon his award, the LaVoi-Widseth Athletic Scholarship medal, given annually to the outstanding athlete and scholar in the fourth year class; (bottom right) Telfred "Bluefoot" Slettvedt accepts the congratulations of William "Clark" Clementson.

The Day of Days for the Seniors and Advanced—graduation day—was held on Thursday, March 28, 1940. One of the largest graduating classes in the school's history were granted diplomas. In the afternoon the members of the Senior Class presented their Class Exercises while in the evening the regular Commencement exercises were held. The Commencement exercises brought to an end a very successful school year.