RESUME OF 1940 FOOTBALL SEASON

October 5: MARTY DRIVES: CENTRAL DIVES—In a bitterly fought game with our city rivals, the Aggies won 13-0. A Central fumble, recovered by the Aggies' Slettvedt, made it possible for Egeland to score in the first quarter. In the second period Marty Egeland, Aggie Fullback, again plunged through for a second touchdown. The second half of the game proved to be a punting duel.

October 11: CONCORDIA FROSH DOWN AGGIES B'GOSH—The Aggies journeyed to foreign fields to play the second game of the season. The Aggies worked the ball down to the ten yard line where they fumbled. Late in the first half the Concordia Frosh intercepted an Aggie pass and ran 85 yards for touchdown to win 6-0.

October 19: BEMIDJI MOOSE COOKED OUR GOOSE—With Lund, Slettvedt and Egeland out of the game because of injuries, the backfield had only one regular, Loyd. McMillan took over the quarterback position. Maidment did some nice work in the backfield. And Henre was great on offense. A Northwest School graduate and former footballer contributed two touchdowns to bring defeat to his alma mater 27-0.

Daily practices and scrimmage kept the footballers pepped up
