Under the supervision of Miss Bede, Miss Scheidler, Miss Kingston, Mr. Pilkey, Mr. Crawford, and Superintendent McCall the students of the Northwest School of Agriculture carry out an interesting program of Bible study each Sunday morning and meet in a body each Sunday evening for a short sermon and educational movies. The boys meet in the assembly room of Stephens Hall for the morning Bible study with members of the faculty taking their turn as leaders. The officers take turns presiding at the meetings. The meeting consists of group singing and talks by the leader. The girls hold their Sunday morning Bible study in Robertson Hall under the leadership of the women faculty members. Their meetings are conducted in the same form as the Y. M. organizations. Each fall after the opening of the school year, the Y. M. and Y. W. organizations hold a get acquainted party in the gymnasium. This year the student body was divided into groups representing a part of National defense and competitive games were played between the Army, Navy, Air Corps, Marines, Coast guard, and Home guard. At this meeting each student and member of the faculty shakes hands with every other person present.
