November 1.....	Northwest Aggies 0.....	Concordia Frosh.....	39
November 8.....	Northwest Aggies 14.....	Morris Aggies.....	6

Despite a record which shows a number of defeats, nevertheless the Northwest Aggies may well consider the football season a great success. In the two most important games on their schedule—the conference games with Grand Rapids and Morris—the team showed that it could come through when the pressure was on and the outcome of the games was important. By defeating the other two Agricultural schools, the Crookston Aggies were the conference champions in football.
