On almost any Monday or Wednesday morning you can hear coming from 204 Hill, a seemingly desperate plea from a group of girls, "St. Catherine, St. Catherine, oh, lend me thy aid and grant that I never may die an old maid." A little later a group of deeper voices mutters, "He who knows and knows that he knows, he is wise, follow him." And finally a combination of voices may chant, "Mumbo Jumbo will hoo-doo you, Mumbo Jumbo will hoo-doo you." Almost everyone knows that when he hears these strange words the Speech Choir is practicing.

This choir is one section of the Advanced speech class. Since the choir appears publicly several times a year it is sometimes regarded as an extra-curricular activity. It meets, however, as a regular class under the direction of Miss Martha Myrle Manning and two credits are given for participation.

This year the choir made its first appearance when it read the Biblical story of the birth of Christ at the Christmas program. This reading served as a very fitting prelude to the rest of the program.

Popular numbers of the choir this year were "Disobedience" by A. A. Milne, "The Congo" by Vachel Lindsay, "Chicago" by Carl Sandburg which were read by the entire group and "A Prayer to St. Catherine" read by the girls and "An Arabian Proverb" by the boys.
