This year marked the fourth year that the Northwest School has recognized hockey as a major sport. Since there were only three lettermen back from the squad of last year, the team got off to a slow start. Although the team won only one game of its schedule, the boys showed great improvement throughout the season and they were always in there fighting until the last whistle. The 1942 hockey team was captained by Allan Gustafson of Lancaster and coached by Mr. LaDoux of Crookston.

Since there were a number of Freshmen and Juniors on the squad, the prospects for next year are encouraging.

The following made up the squad of this year, Captain Allan Gustafson, Surges Amundson, Maurice Bergh, Darwin Ferrier, Arvid Gunderson, Bernard Kobetsky, Donald Kobetsky, Robert Phillips, Donald Jorgenson, Harold Younggren, Jerome Prudhomme, Richard Baril, Dale Walters and Milton Madson.
