

1941 SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Upper left: "I guess I cooked too much rice," admits Ila to Clarence Upper right: Surges holds the undivided attention of Ila, Amy, and Joan Lower left: "You'd better take that back", says Dale to Neil as Ila looks on Lower right: The entire cast of "Footloose" poses for a picture

The Senior Class of 1941 presented their class play, "Footloose" a three act comedy by Charles Q. Burdette, under the direction of Miss Martha Myrle Manning on March 14, 1941. The plot of the play centered around the Early family who live in a suburb of Chicago. The elder Early's are persuaded by their children to go on a world cruise. Life did not run very smoothly while the parents were away and many complications arose while the children were trying to run their own lives. The cast of the play included William Vasilakes, Katherine Brown, Ila Grove, Amy McVeety, Dale Walters, Margaret Forfang, Clarence Sargent, Joan Phillips, Surges Amundson, Helen Rasmussen, Helen Nesbit, Neil Grout and Harold Dahl. All of the members of the cast played their parts very convincingly and the play was well received by the audience.