

Honors Banquet - Advanced Day - Field Meet

The annual Honors Banquet was held March 12, 1941, and all members of the "A" Club attended as guests. A representative of each activity rewarded by the "A" spoke to the group. Mr. Foker acted as master of ceremonies and the guest speaker of the evening was Allan Hoff ('31) of St. Paul. Mr. McCall and the various coaches made short talks and the evening was concluded by community singing.

On March 18, 1941 the Class of 1940 celebrated the annual Advanced Day. All members of the class were dressed in green and white. A clever assembly program was given at the conclusion of which the King and Queen, LeRoy Hanson and Camilla Ecklund, together with their Guard of Honor were presented to the school. In the evening a short program was given in the Dining Hall and a party was held in the Aggie Inn.

From March 19 through March 22 various events of the interclass field meet were run off. The meet included boxing, wrestling, swimming, badminton, and ping pong as well as the regular field events. Competition among the classes was very keen, particularly between the Advanced and Seniors, but the Seniors emerged in first place, followed in order by the Advanced, Juniors, and Freshmen.
