

MR. FOKER

MRS. POFAHL

To the Senior Class of 1943:

As you become older, let your love for each new day deepen. Take stock of yourselves and of how much you have accomplished. See if you have that human dignity that is worthy of our American way of life. Try to find the strength and power that can cope with the problems of this world and the courage to try to solve those problems. Have respect for yourselves and your belief in your ideals. Keep the future peace on earth.
