THE "AGGIE ROUSER"

The "Aggie Rouser" is put out by the Journalism class which is made up of students from the Advanced class. Members of the class write and edit the articles which appear and also do the typing and mimeographing necessary for the publication. The "Rouser" serves as an accurate and detailed account of all school activities and events. It is read with interest by the student body. During the first semester the paper came out once a week, and once every two weeks during the second semester. Miss Manning is the faculty adviser for the "Rouser."
