

Upper left: The outstanding members of the Freshman class serve as waiters and waitresses. Upper right: The faculty table at the banquet. Lower left: The Junior and Senior advisers are seated at the speakers' table. Lower right: Gunhild Nesland, Harris Peterson, Myrtle Smith, Theodore Kroulik, Lillian Jensen, Maynard Skeie, Ann Quantock, and Roger Simmons line up for the Grand March.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The outstanding social event of the year at the Northwest School is the annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom which is given by the Juniors in honor of the Senior class. The event last year was held March 7, 1942 when the Juniors, together with their advisers Miss Webster and Mr. Swan, put on a lovely banquet using "A Day at the Circus" as their theme. The tables in the dining hall were decorated with yellow candles in blue candlesticks and large toy balloons were on each table. At the program presented, Henry McMillan acted as "Ringmaster", and the speakers were the Junior president, Roger Simmons, and the Senior president, Irene Olson, with Wilfred Wold acting as "Chief Clown", Faculty speakers were Mr. Foker and Mr. McCall. The gym was decorated to represent a circus tent and was very effective with blue streamers and many balloons of all colors. All present took part in the Grand March which was lead by Roger Simmons and Angeline Quantock and Irene Olson and Floyd Dahl.