

ADVANCED DAY and HONORS BANQUET

HONORS BANQUET

Former and newly elected members of the honorary "A" Club and the coaches of the interscholastic teams were honor guests at the annual Honors Banquet which was held March 11th, 1942. Mr. O. A. Flaatt, prominent alumnus of the school and Master Farmer of Fisher, Minnesota and Mr. T. M. McCall, superintendent of the school were the chief speakers on the program. Mr. A. M. Foker acted as toastmaster. The Aggie Inn was appropriately decorated for the event and the school trophies were prominently displayed. The retiring captain of each activity spoke on the achievements of his team, and music was provided by Earl Krogstad and Joe Jansen.

ADVANCED DAY

The Class of 1941 presented its king and queen to the school at an assembly program on Advanced Day March 16th, 1942. The king and queen, Alton Knutson and Edna Balstad, were escorted by their Guard of Honor: Harold Loyd, Helen Rasmussen, Robert Grenier, Steffie Pastuck, Clarence Sargent and Joan Phillips. The class was gaily dressed in red, white and blue, the class colors. At the evening dinner, speeches were made by members of the class and by Miss Bierbauer and Mr. Crawford, the class advisers, with Paul Auer acting as toastmaster. After dinner a dance and party with Mr. and Mrs. Kiser and Mr. and Mrs. McCall as guests of honor brought the day to a close.

Upper left: (1. to r.) C. Sargent, H. Loyd, A. Knutson, H. Rasmussen, S. Pastuck, J. Phillips. Upper right: The king, Alton Knutson and queen, Edna Balstad, lead their class into the auditorium followed by their Guard of Honor. Lower left: Phillip Lambert, Jerry Prudhomme, and Harold Anderson enjoy the dinner at the Honors Banquet. Lower right: Ossie and the Little Brown Jug hold places of honor.

