The Newman Club, which was organized seven years ago on our campus, is a group of Catholic boys and girls who meet together for religious instruction on alternate Thursday evenings. Miss Fae Hughbanks has been the faculty adviser of the club since its organization, and Father Lemire of the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception at Crookston, is the spiritual leader. Through their inspiring leadership, which this year has reached a new high, the organization has carried on its successful work from year to year.
