OCTOBER 8

The Aggies met Crookston Central with only a few days' practice and with an inexperienced squad under a new coach. They gave all they could, displayed good sportsmanship, and played a highly creditable game.

OCTOBER 15

The Aggies showed great improvement. They lost to Cathedral High, but in the short space of a week cut the opposing score in half.

OCTOBER 21

The Aggies played their first winning game. Their long hours of practice put into play, our squad in this game showed true colors in defeating the Fosston team 12 to 6.

OCTOBER 29

Aggies meet Aggies at Morris! Since this was the most important game of the season, every effort was concentrated on the winning reward—Ossie. Throughout the game Morris held their own, but the Northwest Aggies finally settled down to business and came through with a 6 to 0 victory.

NOVEMBER 5

The last game of the season found the Aggies still victorious. The Fargo B team was not an easy nut to crack, but determination on the part of the team and support on the part of the rest of the school made evident the 12 to 0 victory.

Our congratulations to Earl Hallstrom and his team! May you have as good luck, Kenneth Price and Grant Peterson.
