Another opportunity for girls to express themselves musically is found in the Girls' Glee Club. While public performance is a goal, rehearsals are held not only for appreciation of music but also to discover the fun in music. Under the direction of Miss Georgene Hanson and Miss Ruth Emerson, accompanist, the girls have been singing "Life Has Loveliness to Sell", "So's I Can Write My Name", "The Navy Hymn", "Almond Blossoms", and "An Old Fashioned Garden".
