

Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom

Portending that ecstatic season of the year, spring, with all its glamor and romance, the Junior-Senior banquet and prom was held at the Northwest School on Saturday evening, March 4, 1944.

The Dutch theme was carried out in decorations and entertainment. Two hundred fifty guests were served in the dining hall which was gaily decked for the occasion. Bouquets of colorful tulips and lily-of-the-valley and candles of red, white, and blue, the junior class colors, placed in wooden Dutch shoes adorned the tables. Waitresses and bus boys wore Dutch costumes.

Marvin Jensen served as toastmaster and John Lapp, the president of the junior class, gave the address of welcome to the senior class of 1944. Kenneth Price responded on behalf of the senior class. Mr. Barron and Miss Trengove, advisers to the junior class, also extended their greetings to the seniors.

After the banquet and revelers repaired to the gymnasium bright with flowers and colors. Apple cider was served from picturesque windmills whose wheels really turned. The traditional grand march, led by the presidents of the two classes and their guests, preceded the dancing which brought the anticipated event to a happy close.
