

Song Contest

Second row: M. Sargent, P. Trontvedt, D. Krogstad, I. Pulkrabek

With the spirit of Christmas early tingling in the air, the annual song contest was observed in 1944 on December ninth. Each class lent its own enthusiasm, ingenuity and musical talent in performing three Christmas carols—the contest song, “Silent Night”, a carol selected by the class, and a special number rendered by a vocal ensemble with special scenery effects.

Mr. T. W. Thorson, of the music department of Crookston Central High School, judged the contest and gave his decision in favor of the seniors, directed by Doris Krogstad. The Advanced placed a close second, the juniors, third, and the freshmen, fourth.

The Song Contest, which is held each year near the close of the first semester, not only offers to everyone the pleasurable experience of choir work but also promotes class spirit and cooperation.
