

Variety Night

If ever you see your name in glittering lights or on the billboards of the world's theaters or concert halls, you will know you got your start at the traditional Variety Night at the Northwest School. This annual entertainment feature was scheduled for January 20 in 1945. The following program was presented:

Rhapsody in Blue—Delores Hamre, Geneva Iverson, Pearl Trontvet (3rd prize); Nautical but Nice—Kenneth Miller (2nd prize); The Song Sisters—Avis Anderson, Ruth Norum (2nd prize); The Four Roses—Grant Peterson, Kenneth Price, Kent Hanson, Glen Holmquist (2nd prize); Dream Lady—Myrna Larson (3rd prize); Meditations at the Console—Louise Nelson; The Very Merry Widow—Cheryl Bjella; Campus Cavaliers—Harvey Degerness, Calmer Johnson, Raymond Johnson, Kenneth Miller, Edward Nelson, Grant Peterson, Kenneth Price, and Franklin Zak (1st prize); A Musical Journey—Louise Nelson and Doris Krogstad (1st prize); Selections from the Three B's—Kent Hanson (1st prize); The Three Feathers—Harvey Degerness, Edward Nelson, and Franklin Zak.

Edna Paulsrud acted as announcer and Bill Geddes and Robert Johnston served as stage crew.

