Basketball

The basketball squad met this year with ninety cage hopefuls turning out for the sport. Only three of these were lettermen: David Erickson and the co-captains Russell Evje and Armin Ross. However the return of Gerhard Ross from Texas after a semester's absence, and the enrollment of Allen Carlson, added two fine basketball players and considerable strength to the team.

Losing their first game of the season to Fertile, 24-46, the Aggies defeated Climax 19-16 and Halstad 25-22 but lost to the Alumni 28-23 to wind up the pre-holiday season.

In January the team added another fine player to its club, Jack Gilbertson, a navy veteran.

A large share of the team's sportsmanship and ability must go to the team's coach, Herschel Lysaker. Under his excellent guiding, the basket ball squad has developed into a fine ball club.
