

Highlights of the Homecoming assembly were talks by the superintendents of the two schools, T. H. Fenske of the West Central School at Morris and T. M. McCall of the Northwest School, a two-piano number by the Misses Ruth Emerson and Jeanette Peterson, introduction of the teams by coaches H. H. Lysaker of the Northwest School and Perry Tabbutt of West Central School, and the homecoming skit "The Talking Football". This skit was presented with Reuben Hanson as the Voice, Lee Nielsen and Conrad Zak as students, and Edward Nelson as the Old Man. The Misses Alice Anderson and Jeanette Peterson of the English staff directed the Homecoming skit. Music for the program was furnished by the Boys' Glee Club under the direction of Miss Winnifred Erickson. The program was concluded with a "pepfest" conducted by The Pepsters.

A short program was held at the Homecoming dinner with coaches H. H. Lysaker and P. Tabbutt speaking for their teams and co-captains of both teams responding to toasts. A boys' quartette consisting of Edward Nelson, Robert Simmons, Ray Johnson, Franklin Zak sang two numbers at the banquet.

Miss Lillian Floan, a member of the Advanced class, was crowned Homecoming queen at the all-school dance and party. The other candidates for Homecoming queen served as attendants to the queen; these were Lorraine Anderson, Arlene Vesledahl, Rose Marie Kochmann, and Marian Lindstrom. The coronation ceremony was performed by the co-captains of the football team, James Muzzy and Curtis Simmons.
