ADVANCED CLASS

After four long years we have finally reached that coveted title of Advanced. Above are the officers elected by us to lead us through this very important year.

The reason that Treasurer Lee Nielson isn't laughing on the picture is accounted for by the fact that he is extremely worried that his football pants will show in the picture. Lee is not new to the office of treasurer, having held the same position in his Senior year. Smiling directly at the camera is Secretary Adelyne Sorensen. Adelyne is a wholesome young lady who is well liked by her fellow class members. She has been active on the Pepster Squad. It is too bad that Sergeant-at-Arms Wesley Madson isn't wearing his red tie—he is simply stunning in it.

David Lundberg, who is now serving his second term as class president, is co-captain of the basketball team this year. As class president in 1947, he gave the Armistice Day message at the monument. Vice-president James Thibodo has the distinction of winning the award as most valuable player on the football team. We are still wondering where Sergeant-at-Arms Norris Pederson was on the day the picture was taken.
