

WE SALUTE THE HONORED DEAD

Armistice Day was observed with a memorial service in the auditorium. The address was given by attorney Philip Thorson of Crookston. Mr. McCall paid tribute to the casualties of World Wars I and II. The color guards of the veterans organizations led the march to the monument where Harris Hanson, president of the Senior class, placed the wreath upon the monument.