

DIRECTOR

Greetings Seniors:

Having been in close contact with you for the past three years and as a member of your Aggie Advisory Board, I can sincerely say that the Northwest School has never had a better group of workers than we have on this year's staff. You will really appreciate your efforts when you sit down to read and admire your book.

Sincerely yours,

E. N. Riessgold
-REGISTRAR

To the Class of 1949:

I want to extend my congratulations to the Class of 1949 of the Northwest School and to the Aggie Board for this historical record of class and school events. Your class has made a fine record at the school. We are depending upon you to go forward in assuming your share of responsibilities and leadership for the preservation of our American way of life. The postwar problems of adjustments in agricultural and industrial production, which confront our nation, are reflected back to each individual in our nation. In order for you to meet the postwar adjustment problems intelligently, you must now familiarize yourselves with information on the national and international level.

I trust that you may ever maintain your present zeal for knowledge.

Sincerely yours,

T. M. McCall
