

ASSOCIATE DIRECTORS

Winifred Erickson Betty Indihar

"The wonder grows for miles around,
That hands can cover so much ground."

This short verse partially explains why Miss Indihar is a pianist in great demand. Talented Miss Erickson never spares her enthusiasm and efforts in making music a vital part of campus life.

Marie Torkelson Lola Mehl

It's not exactly a punishment to be a patient in the Health Service which is under the capable supervision of Miss Torkelson and Miss Mehl. Final check-up before release. "Temperature normal—pulse rapid." How about that, George?

Verna Stokke Julia Shea Retta Bede

In our home economics department we have these three capable teachers. Miss Shea has the important job of managing the dining hall and also teaching quantity cookery. Miss Bede's boundless energy makes her an integral part of almost every school activity. Miss Stokke's helpful assistance makes it possible for the girls to learn valuable instruction in sewing.
