Alice Anderson Ittner
Margaret Larsen Borgni Skorpen
Jean Kjorlie

Because of her background of diversified reading, Miss Larsen's classes provide broadening literary experience. Senior English is enjoyable because Miss Skorpen's pleasing personality reveals a genuine interest in her students. Vivacious Miss Kjorlie injects in her students a keen enthusiasm comparable to her own. Her friendliness makes her well known to the students. Good natured Mrs. Ittner, freshman English teacher, is still excited because of her recent change in name.

T. M. Pulkrabek

J. A. Campbell

Friendly Mr. Pulkrabek, veterans' co-ordinator, is a valuable addition on the campus. The amount of work connected with the position has necessitated the services of another instructor, Mr. Campbell.

H. H. Lysaker

E. F. Bennett

Our physical education program is under the supervision of three live wires who can be found in the general vicinity of the gymnasium from dawn to dusk. Our popular coach, Mr. Lysaker, who has turned out championship football and basketball teams is also home project director. Mr. Larson, well known as a referee, is now on our side as assistant coach and dormitory preceptor. Agile Mr. Bennett trains the cross country, swimming and wrestling teams in a very creditable way.
