

Scene Two

Song Contest

Winter time and the Christmas season bring the old familiar carols to us on the Northwest campus by means of the annual song contest, which features each class competing against the others, with the music trophy as the goal.

The directors and accompanists of their class groups were freshmen: Birget Johnson and Betty Ann Johnson, directors; Edith Bergeson, accompanist; juniors: Maxine Moritz, director; Nyla Finney and Imogene Lundin, accompanist; seniors: Eunice A. Peterson, director; Luella Brekke, accompanist; advanced: Dorothy Kolling and Florence McMillan, directors; Clarice Thureen, accompanist.

The senior class is now the proud possessor of the beautiful trophy.

