

Scene Three

DEBATE

Seated, l to r.: P. Fehr, F. Mosher, G. Filipi, L. Johnson, D. Auer, M. Munson, M. Moritz. Standing: V. Matson, Miss Kjorlie, M. Harty, L. Brinkman; not pictured: J. Kruta.

Resolved: "That the United Nations now be revised into a Federal World Government" is the question, and the pro's and con's are being hotly disputed as the debate squad holds its weekly meetings.

The work promises to be interesting as the debaters prepare convincing discussion for both sides of the question with Miss Kjorlie's enthusiasm and encouragement. The West Central school at Morris is our traditional rival and we hope to give a good account of ourselves when we meet them.

National

Honor

Society

Seated l. to r.: C. Thureen, M. Vesledahl, M. Sargent, D. Finkenbinder, A. Torgerson, E. A. Peterson. Standing: L. Johnson, M. Green, H. Hanson, L. Bergh, O. Halstenggaard, W. Waterworth, E. Waterworth.

The National Honor Society is a nationwide organization made up of students who are outstanding in school activities. Although high scholarship is a requirement for admission, eligibility is also based on character, leadership and service.