

The Homecoming welcome mat

Queen Bergit

At this year's Homecoming something new was initiated in the form of an Ossie in the flesh. The happy pig was decked out in a maroon corduroy jacket with flashy letters in gold proclaiming his identity.

Although the wooden mascot, Ossie, was lost temporarily to Morris as a result of 1949 Queen Elaine Kopecky crowns Bergit Johnson between halves of the Homecoming game. Her attendants are Merlene Eisert, Mavis Thormodson, Harriet Lydick, and Betty Jamieson.

"Roll over Morris" is driven home by the boys' quartette.

