

National Honor Society

Standing: Evelyn Holy, Mr. Reiersgord, Adelle Larson. Seated: Neal Bjornson, Paul Bergeson, Richard Kluzak.

The National Honor Society is a national organization giving honor to students that have shown outstanding ability in certain phases of student life. The guideposts used in selecting these candidates are character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

Debate and extempore speaking are the two forensic activities that receive the most attention at our school. We learn how to attack problems and seek solutions to these problems. Upon finding the best solutions to a problem our task is to present our case in such a way that it will gain acceptance. Hours of research and note taking are preparatory to the presentation of a debate.
