

As youth of today we look forward to a happy future. Beginning life on our own, we shall miss our schoolmates, our teachers, and our friends; but we shall cherish our many happy memories of these four years.