

HOMECOMING ROYALTY

Marilyn Hovet, Marilyn Balstad, Queen Marlys Love, Barbara Kagg, Marlys Fjeld.

Her Majesty Queen Marlys.

Robertson Hall takes top honors in dormitory decorations.

HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES

It was October 28, 1954. The evening was perfect; the torches lit, the bonfire blazing as Morris burned, and peppy, enjoyable speeches were heard by everyone. Homecoming had begun!

Although there was a lapse of one day between our pep fest and our Homecoming highlights, there was no lapse in the fire of our enthusiasm. The spirit was high as we all gathered for the Saturday morning assembly at which time both teams were introduced to our faculty and student body. Excitement ran high as Robertson Hall received the trophy for the best dormitory decorations. Every one grew tense as the moment for the coronation grew near. The retiring queen, Evelyn Holy, stepped forward to crown Marlys Love, Homecoming queen of 1954. The announcement was greeted with enthusiastic applause. When the program ended the newly crowned queen was escorted from the auditorium by her "head man," Glen Finkenbinder, and the remainder of the court which included: Barbara Kagg and Arnold Sheie, Marilyn Balstad and Sylvester Greskowiak, Marilyn Hovet and Leonard Bailey, Marlys Fjeld and Glenn Filipi.

The queen and her court reigned over the Homecoming Dance which was held in the evening.

It was a great fight Mal

