

Allan Dragseth

Walter Fehr

Lynn Porter

The Northwest School can be proud of the 1955-56 basketball team. With the coaching of Mr. Herschel Lysaker, they have shown excellent sportsmanship and have improved with each succeeding game. The boys, who lacked height, played at a disadvantage, therefore using a fast-break type of offense. While playing defense they used a shifting man to man play. Hard work and excellent coaching gave the boys the incentive to win.

Harold Moe

Darold Hassler

Ed Pester

