CLASS OFFICERS AND ADVISORS

This year on September 30, 82 students registered for their first time at the Northwest School. It was quite a day trying to find out where the buildings were and associating the buildings along with their names. After a very confused morning of registering, we were guided around the campus by Mr. Phillip Larsen, Selvig Hall counselor. In the afternoon I.Q. tests were given by Mr. Field to determine how smart we were. It was comforting to know that no one flunked! Of course, we found out that you can't flunk an I.Q. test. After our tests we enjoyed a few moments to ourselves before supper. Later in the evening we went to Kiehle Building where we were shown a film after which we went to a get acquainted party in the gym. Thus our first day was confusing and full of excitement, but gave way to an evening of enjoyment.

Tuesday dawned and we were full fledged students of the Northwest School. The difficulty of finding our class rooms was evident to nearly all, but after Tuesday we found ourselves in the regular school routine. Later on we, the class of '61, elected our class officers.
