

Most Studious

Myrna Anderson possesses all the essentials needed to be a success. Part of this success is due to all the "midnight oil" she has been burning during the year.

Allen Johnson's height did not mar his ability to learn. In Allen, we possibly have the makings of another Einstein.

Best Dressed

Mary Ostrem is seen here wearing her pleated skirt and vest that is so popular on campus. Mary has worn some creations she has sewn herself.

James Britten has been sporting some very fashionable sweaters this year. With his shoes polished and his hair neatly combed, Jim sets an example for his fellow students.

Most Musical

Leeila Tvinnereim has progressed in her musical ability these last few years. She plays three musical instruments, and has been a very faithful member of the school chorus.

Our foreign exchange student, Louis Quijada, is a very polished vocalist, who is able to sing in both English and Spanish. Louis has won awards and much local recognition for his natural musical talent.
