

Sophomore Class

PRESIDENT:
James Kovar

VICE PRESIDENT:
Judy Karr

SECRETARY:
Claudia Hanson

Busy, busier—that's how we were those first days of school. While we were still trying to reconcile ourselves to the idea of getting up in the morning, we were out the door running down the sidewalk to get to breakfast before Ma Brown locked the doors.

But there was plenty to do during study hours, for textbooks had been issued the very first day. And we went back to our rooms twenty-five pounds heavier than when we came to school the very first day.

But we managed to have a little fun directing innocent freshmen to Kiehle or ringing the door bell before entering the dorm.
