

The daily "buzz" sessions were a very interesting and important part of the program. The special programs held at general assembly added a great deal.

The solemn and impressive candle lighting service was a very moving ending for our Sunday night service. A lot of interesting and really constructive work was accomplished in the various committees.

Apparently the Northwest School had leadership where it really counted. Here we see temporary chairman Richard Olson congratulating Rodger Swanson, who was elected permanent chairman.

A demonstration on proper parliamentary procedure was presented by one of the groups. It brought out a lot of useful information that many of us had not even been aware of.
