

Meals were served, dishes done, and tables were set by the students of the various schools, while Mr. Flancher works feverishly to get his fingers out of the dishwasher.

During one of the after dinner leisure hours we find boys from Morris, Grand Rapids, Crookston, and Waseca discussing school problems and telling jokes.

We had a lot of fun putting on a mock wedding for Mr. and Mrs. Matalamaki whose wedding anniversary fell on one of the days we were at camp. The car was decorated with crepe paper, shoe polish, and tin cans were hanging from behind.

Dancing was one of the forms of recreation that was enjoyed by all. We also had games along with snowball and broom dances.
