

Our editor at play. The floor was extremely slippery, but the couples didn't mind, they just danced a little closer together.

Here we see the Grand March progressing in fine style to the music of the first "Rock and Roll" band ever to play at the Northwest School. The "Galaxies" from Lakota, North Dakota, swept us along throughout the evening with some very fine modern music.

Here we see the better half of Gloria's date, as the camera sees him.

Young love stumbles on the bridge of happiness.
