

Officers: SEATED: left to right, Sandra Risser, Shirley Piker. STANDING: Joyce Schultz, Marcia Trydahl.

Tri-Hi-Y

As we find teenagers of many backgrounds and types in school, we realize they are of many faiths and denominations. Yet each seeks God in his own way.

In these crucial years that may determine the course of our lives, we need influence of religion to help us make right decisions and guide us in the present and future. We nurture our maturing faith in many ways.

Most of us choose to attend the services of our own churches Sunday mornings to pause and have our spirits renewed and to refresh our faith, so that we can face the pressures of the week with serene anticipation. Some of us contribute to the services in youth choirs, lifting clear, fresh voices in anthems expressing the glory of God.

Sermons arouse our interest, challenge our intellect. Sometimes they answer our questions, relieve our doubts.

Many of us like to have prayer meetings and get more spiritual emphasis during the weeks, and therefore we have the national organization for Protestant young people known as Tri-Hi-Y, a part of the Young Women's Christian Association, and the Young Men's Christian Association.

Youth Seeks God

FRONT ROW: Shirley Piker, Joyce Schultz, Sandra Risser, Marcia Trydahl. SECOND ROW: Neva Sem, Kay Peterson, Judy Karr, Judy Larson, Nancy Schroeder, Claudia Hanson. THIRD ROW: Ruth Jaenisch, Beverly Shelstad, Twyla Gunderson, Carol Fehr, Sandra Warren, Judy Hanson, Betty Hedstrand, Linda Armstrong.