

Administration

Believe in what you are doing—in your house—in its policy and principles—become an inseparable part of your institution—get back of its purpose, and look with optimism upon the unlimited field for your own endeavors—there your influence and efforts will be felt and you will be sure to be rewarded.

—Unknown